Dear Louis,

Bringuier and Healy have finally found their voices. My letter to Healy is enclosed. I wish I had a lawyer there. I think I see how we cuuld use some intellectual judo.

There is a fine fellow in Canada who has some unusual competences and has don some excellent work. He is developing some information on Beckham, has some suspicions on which he is working, and has asked me for information about Beckham personally that I do not have. I have suggested that he write you.

He is Dick Bernabei, Department of Classics, Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario.

To begin with, what will take you almost no time, he asks if Beckham has any kind of accent and whether he takes dope. Please let him know if you can.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
